All checks should be given to Amy at City Hall.

“Deadline” is April 15, 2024, for vendors.

Drake McCain is going to check his calendar for the 12:00 to 1:00 p.m. music slot.

Kristin is revising the sponsorship deadline to April 25, 2024.

Stephanie will handle the “thank yous” for the sponsors.

Stephanie will handle the “thank yous” for the vendors.

The website is almost done and will have a line for tourism.

The signs for the event will be made new instead of using back of signs for Lighting the Way to the Depot. There will be four sandwich boards.

Tony will no longer be able to do the hayrides so it will be up for sponsorships. We will also need a tractor.

Teresa is working on by-laws. She presented a draft for our review. We will need a special meeting to work on those. Members should give any suggestions to Teresa.

Floatzilla:

Norm is leaving Arrowhead and moving and, of course, leaving the Board.

We are working with the Tennessee Riverline for a date.

Strawberry Festival – We are taking about a possible float with advertising for Spring City.

Tennessee Aquarium is having a festival in Mid-May 2005. Something to think about.

Laurel Days is in the works with the Tennessee Riverline.

The City has ordered and paid for more parts for the tree.

We are searching for speakers and sound system.

Teresa is putting together a calendar. Please provide her with any dates.

Our May meeting is scheduled May 28, 2024. We will discuss whether we will change this date at our April meeting.

Meeting was adjourned at 8:15 p.m.
